Decreased Inventory of Single-Family Homes in Greater Hartford

Closed sales also down compared to last year

(Hartford, Conn., June 18, 2018) – According to the Greater Hartford Association of REALTORS® (GHAR), closed sales of single family homes in greater Hartford decreased 2.33 percent (from 1115 to 1089) and new listings decreased 4.99 percent (from 2264 to 2151) over May of 2017. The median sale price fell 1.70 percent (from $228,900 to $225,000). During this same year-over-year timeframe, inventory dropped 13.06 percent (from 6147 to 5344).

In year-to-date statistics, closed sales decreased 2.14 percent (from 4205 to 4115) and the median sale price increased 4.76 percent (from $210,000 to $220,000). New listings decreased 2.52 percent (from 8261 to 8053) from the beginning of the year, as compared to last year.

Condominium closed sales decreased 4.44 percent (from 270 to 258) over May of last year. The median sale price increased 3.75 percent (from $145,500 to $150,950) and inventory decreased 13.70 percent (from 1365 to 1178), over May of 2017.

In year-to-date statistics, condominium closed sales decreased 2.58 percent (from 1007 to 981) and the median sale price rose 4.03 percent (from $136,500 to $142,000).

“Low inventory levels are making it difficult for housing sales to progress,” stated GHAR CEO, Holly Callanan. “This market is a great time for those looking to sell,” she said.

In the national outlook, Lawrence Yun, National Association of REALTORS® chief economist, says this spring’s staggeringly low inventory levels caused existing sales to slump in April. “The root cause of the underperforming sales activity in much of the country so far this year continues to be the utter lack of available listings on the market to meet the strong demand for buying a home,” he said. “Realtors® say the healthy economy and job market are keeping buyers in the market for now even as they face rising mortgage rates. However, inventory shortages are even worse than in recent years, and home prices keep climbing above what many home shoppers are able to afford.”
